PREFACE.

—:o:—

To a work of this kind, only a few words by way of preface are required.

The Registers of the Parish of Wandsworth are now comprised in twenty-four paper books, and the contents of the first three are contained in this volume.

The books commence with the year 1603 (1 Jac. I.) and, with exception of an unfortunate hiatus in the burials from 1678 to 1727, are complete to the present time.

The entries are distributed as follows :—

Burials	8 Feb.	1864—22 Aug.	1871.
Burials	22 Aug.	1871—21 Nov.	1877.
Burials	24 Nov.	1877—

The missing entries of Burials probably formed one volume, in which the Minister was required, under a penalty, to insert certain additional particulars (Stat. 30 Car. II Cap. 3, repealed by 54 Geo. III.) and it may be that a non-compliance with the statute led to the suppression of this book; but whatever the reason may have been, the volume was missing at the time of the compilation of the Parliamentary Return of Parish Registers in 1833. Enquiry was personally made at Winchester and at Doctor's Commons for the Bishop's transcripts of the missing Register, but without success.

Owing to the fact that a number of French Refugees settled here at various times, numerous entries will be found relating to aliens. The Refugees for some years had a separate Church in a court-yard immediately opposite the Parish Church, and inasmuch as the Parish Rate Books contain several French surnames which do not appear in the Parish Registers, it is possible that separate Registers may have been kept by their ministers. Diligent but unavailing enquiry has been made with a view to ascertain whether such Registers exist.

The proximity of Wandsworth to London (it is now within the new County of London) gives an additional value to the publication of the present Volume.

It may be interesting to mention that quite recently the Editor was able to establish the fact that a descendant of the ancient race of Czars, Stephen the son of Mickepher Alphery or Alfery, exercised the calling of a Smith in this Parish, where he was also married, had children baptised, and died of the Plague.

It only remains to acknowledge the courtesy with which the present Vicar of Wandsworth, the Rev. Wm. Reed, M.A., permitted the Editor to transcribe the Registers.

Wandsworth,
Nov. 1889.
